The Best Book.

The Bible is the best Book. It is the only Book the world agrees in spelling with a capital letter. It is a Book of books, each one of which is a gem, shining with heavenly radiance. The whole Book is from God. so that we properly call it the Word of God! It comes from God's own lips, whether spoken by his prophets or by his Son, for "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners, spake unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son!" A Book from God, with God as its author, we should expect to be the best Book.

The Bible is an inspiring power for greatest good. We would not expect it to exceed other books, in this respect, if Bible authorship were simply human. In comparison with ancient Greek and Roman books preserved to us, the Bible is small in bulk. It seems ponderous as it lies before us in its larger form, but should we place three hundred books, Bible-size, beside the Bible, what a contrast we would have! The larger column, a bulk of 300 Bibles, represents ancient Roman and Greek books preserved to us. But do we get the same measure of blessed, helpful inspiration from any one book of ancient, human literature that we get from the Bible? Do we get a one hundredth part as much of such helpfulness from all ancient, human literature as comes to us from the Bible alone? Certainly, the Book that most powerfully inspires to best things, is the best Book!

The world's best songs; its best paintings; its best, not to say its only, philanthropies; its best institutions; its best organized social and moral helps, are, one and all, the creations of Bible inspiration. Take from the world that which the Bible has directly or indirectly inspired, how bare and barren the world would be!

The Bible begets spiritual life and so prepares men for the higher work of earth and for the blessedness of heaven. It would hardly be a truth to say that no regenerated soul could trace its spiritual birth to the influence of any other book than the Bible, but it would be safe to say that no book, save such a book as the Bible has inspired, has had a regenerating influence on man. Millions today and unnumbered millions of other days have been born again, lifted into the spiritual life, through the power of the Bible on their hearts. What better proof could we have as to the worth of the Bible, of its rightful claim to be the best of all books? The words of salvation—words by which we shall be saved, are found on nearly every page of the Bible. This verse and that verse, half as many verses nearly as the whole Bible contains, have been the special means of the salvation of one or more of the sons of men. What a blessed power a book must contain that unlocks the heart to heaven, and heaven itself, with all its treasures, to the heart of men! Yes, the Bible is the best Book! It is better than all other books in one!

The Church of the Twentieth Century.

CARLYLE SUMMERBELL.

Long years ago a hero was mobbed for preaching the good news of Christ. Rescued by an officer, he addressed him in Greek; but on turning to his countrymen he spoke in Hebrew. "And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet." Their mother-tongue affected the Hebrews more than any other language.

So with the gospel for the different centuries, to be most effective it needs to be spoken in the mother-tongue of the century in which it is preached.

Let us briefly consider a few phases of the gospel spoken in the mother-tongue of the twentieth century.

Capital and labor. By their lives and works will Christians teach the laborer and the capitalist the Golden Rule. Until the brotherhood of man is recognized as a practical necessity of business policy, the church should consider its responsibility for the bitterness and hatred. In this great problem, which seems to many paramount, love is the best and only contribution of the church.

Education. As the brightest young people will naturally attend the best schools, Christian schools and colleges must be the Making theological religions of men's heads the test of fellowship in men's church creeds, disciplines and confessions of faith, has killed the Lord's two witnesses, Word and Spirit, now dead in the street to lie three and a half days. Higher critics say there is no God, and overthrow the faith of some that were never converted in soul, only in head.—A. R. Heath.

most excellent. The relationship of true education to the kingdom of God, when rightly understood, will bring freely money, prayers and consecrated lives.

The Bible. Modern Christian scholarship teaches that the biblical writers under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit used history, legend, fiction, epic and lyric poet y, oratory and symbolisms to convey truth. The church of the twentieth century will gladly welcome any new light and the Bible will take its place as the great library of the soul; not a treatise on geology or astronomy, but the mighty revelation of God's truth in psychology, sociology, theology and ethics.

Politics. Patriotism, every day in the year, at the polls, in the home, everywhere, will be insisted upon. While not affiliating with any political party, the church of God will cleanse politics by cleaning the men that make politics and revealing the beautiful vision of the Christ.

Internal and external. Father's Spirit is leading the children into more and more truth. Growing better and wiser, they are closer together; and as a result union is an assured fact of the future. But sad would it be for the people that sit in darkness if the church would delay until perfection is attained. However the attempt to force Christianity with modern scientific death instruments, is inhuman to say the least, and drags the commandments of our Savior in the mire. For the church of the twentieth century the philosophy of Jesus is still up-to-date for external or missionary effort.

In God's great plan of redemption the church of this age must surpass ancient history. To be as good it must be better. The laymen of this century must be as self-sacrificing as the best of the preachers of the nineteenth. Every one must be called "to his vocation." Secular callings shall no longer exist; farming, teaching, housekeeping will all be sacred.

These, to my mind, are some words of the gospel in the mother-tongue of the twentieth century; possessing the spirit of Jesus for the age in which God has placed us, living abundantly and enjoying the eternal life of today.

Pastor Repastus.

BY MRS. J. P. WATSON.

My Dear Brother and Ex-Pastor:

Your letter of condolence, on the death of my beloved church, received, and references to suggestions in address at late convention on pastorless churches, noted.

I, myself, heard the admirable discourse referred to, but some poin's occurred to me which were not mentioned there—either out of deference to the inexorable buzzer or because they were such as would occur only to a layman.

Now, Brother Exe to my mind this is vastly the most serious matter we have to deal with. A pastorless church is soon a dead church; a dead church is a triumphal column for Satan. Tam O'Shanter's vision of the demons' dance in the deserted church was more than a drunkard's dream.

Do you realize, does any one realize, that by our last denominational census (1900) twelve per cent of our churches were absolutely pastorless, while two-thirds were practically so—seeing their pastor only twice or even once a month?

More than that, forty-three per cent of our ministers were churchless! Some of these, it is true, are tagged "superannuated," but superannuation is a relative period; St. John at Ephesus never reached it.

This is most appalling! I wonder that our people have not come together in great convocations to consider this matter alone. Surely it should have the primal attention of every earnest brother from now until October, and no other considerations should engage the thought of our quadrennial gathering until some practical remedy for this distressing situation has been found.

What is the matter with us?

To begin with, the children of sectarianism are wiser in their generation than the children of Christian tolerance, and their superb, automatic, patent, self-adjusting mechanism has riveted them to presumably every township in America, while we cripple along with a paltry 1522 organization, 283 of which have not even the wraith of a pastor. (Please destroy this letter when read. I don't want these figures seen outside the family.)

Mars (♂) is in superior conjunction with the sun on the 29th, and changes from morning star to evening star.

Now there is something else. You won't be offended, will you, if I mention it? You see "business is business," even when it's the Lord's business. You've heard that before. You've sometimes mentioned it yourself apropos of salary raising. That's all right; but see here, we hired our last minister for half the time. He construed that as meaning half the Sundays. Fourteen times out of the twenty-six he came; seven times he sent a supply; five times we waited an hour and went home. Six of the fourteen times he began his sermon with, "I never apologize and shall not now do so, but I have been unable to find time to prepare a discourse and so shall simply talk briefly, etc." (By the way, that Ciceronian trick of saying what he wasn't going to say was the only trace of classical training ever discoverable in his addresses). Say, would you think it quite fair for an employee—a doctor, say—to treat you so?

One word more. Don't let your pulpit spirit be quite so evanescent. I mean this: You paint before us in terrifying lines the perils of a dying world; you plead with the sinner to repent, you weep over him. Our hearts thrill at your appeal; they ache over the intolerable sorrow you must feel when not one soul is touched, but, with the benediction, your other-worldliness vanishes; a cheery, breezy, take-it-easy atmosphere envelops you; you slap on the back the man we thought you were weeping for and when he asks you to go home with him "to eat chicken," you get off that pre-eminently, refined, witty, pre-historic remark about preachers having fowl stomachs.

Now, brother, there was a man crude, platitudinous, ungrammatical. You wouldn't preach one of his sermons, but he saved souls. His name was Moody. No relieved, "now-that's over" feeling hummed over the audience when he ceased speaking. In that hush lay Moody's eloquence. Till the last listener had disappeared his attitude was that of intense yearning. He expected results from the sermon; that was what he preached it for.

Forgive me if I've said too much? It isn't a beginning to what I'd like to say, but I feel better. Hurriedly Yours,

A LAYMAN.

October 28, 1901.

Our Watchword, "Forward."

This is an age of progress. The universal cry everywhere is forward, and to this end men bend their energies with renewed vigor daily.

Along the lines of higher education there are decided improvements in pursuing methods which bring about better results than heretofore. Our schools and colleges with better equipments are molding society, as our young men and young women who are trained in their curriculums go out into the active duties of every day life.

No age has witnessed the liberty of conscience that has dawned with the twentieth century. To keep time with the martial strains of advanced thought, the church, the leavening factor in the world, is stepping forth in her majesty and grandeur with banners unfurled to the breeze. This is as it should be. Because of narrow, contracted views held by some in the church, it is no reason to suppose that others who are working along advanced lines should be considered heterodox. The greatest Teacher who appeared in the world to lead men into truth, was persecuted on account of his advanced views theologically. Truth is a flower whose fragrance sweetens human life, wherever it blooms in its beauty and sweetness. The lowly Nazarene came for the express purpose of propagating and unfolding truth.

Hence His departure from the tenets held by the Jewish priesthood caused him to receive at their hands scorn and calumny. Creeds of men flourish for a time on prejudice and bigotry, but are destined to perish with advanced thinking. The reason that such men as Galileo suffered at the hands of some in the church, was on account of the fact that councils had laid down certain rules by which all men must think religiously or perish in the attempt to promulgate their honest opinions. Hence, Christ must perish and Galileo must retreat, when truth lies wounded in the house of those who should be her friends; but crushed to earth, again she rears her stately head, and temples, beautiful and grand, are built in which she may be worshiped.

I do not say but what the "Angel's Lily"

Ignorance is bliss; its folly to be wise in that which is evil.—A. R. Heath.

Elder B. L. Dixon, the crying preacher of northern Indiana, forty years ago taught school in winter and reported 150 to 200 converted to Christ's Christianity annually for many years. He is in heaven now. His daughter is the wife of Bro. J. N. Hess, Herald Agent. God bless them.—A. R. Heath.

may be passed by many thinking minds, and some may run to extremes in latitudinarianism, but however many dangers there may be in the path of the investigator, no one should be dismayed, or cease the earnest search for truth in forest, field, or sky, where nature's God is seen; or fail with spiritual appetite keen to search the Book Divine. With no fetters on the mind, truth shall be found, and he who expects to find must search, and he who seeks will have no cause for regret, for He who said, "I am the truth," laid down conditions whereby one and all might know the truth, and knowing, might be free.

To this end knowledge should be sought. A truth discovered in nature's pages is just as sacred as in any book revealed, for all the good, and true, and beautiful in this world in which we live, eminates from Him who rules, reigns and loves—the architect divine.

The Teacher's Ownership in Souls.

Paul calls Timothy, "My own son in the faith." So also he speaks of Titus and Onesimus. Everyone who has been instrumental in the hands of God in bringing a soul to Christ, knows the significance of the expression. So every pastor feels toward those who have been converted under his ministry. For everyone he has travailed, and toward everyone his heart has gone out with paternal affection. They are the offspring of his soul. They are his in a very real sense —a part of his spiritual treasure—a rich and eternal possession. Rich because there is nothing so precious as human souls—nothing that produces such a consciousness of wealth. Rich because nothing so enlarges the soul of its owner. We live in each other. Every soul that we help to save adds to the magnitude of our own being. And not only that, but it adds to its quality and brilliancy. "They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever."

Life is more sparkling than gold, and how it transfigures those who are pre-eminent as soul winners!

The marginal reading for the word "wise" in the above quotation is "teachers"—"they that be teachers shall shine." They that teach the way of life—that teach others to live better lives and do better work— shall shine. This is specifically the work of the Sunday-school teacher. And if the Sunday-school is the nursery of the church and seventy-five per cent of church members come from it, as some claim, then the Sunday-school teacher has a large ownership in the souls of the church. This thought ought to be inspiring to every teacher. The minister generally gets credit for additions to the church, but who shall say how much of it belongs to the work of the teacher in the Sunday-school? Few preachers adapt their preaching to children. The impressions of the child are the most lasting and influential. The chances are that they have come from the primary class teacher, or from some teacher of their comparatively early life. Have you thought of this? Do you realize that you are in partnership with the minister in the business of saving souls, and that you have more than an equal chance in the profits? Do you remember Christ's estimate of the value of a soul? "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" How many have you in your class - five, ten, twenty? How much treasure is it possible for you to lay up in heaven? How many times more than all the gold of earth? Just as many times more as you have members in your class. They are yours for the winning.

The Man Who is Down, as a rule, does not have many friends. It seems to be so hard to espouse the cause of the very one who most needs help. Too often the "priest" and the "Levite" pass by on the other side - the popular side—and it is left for the "Samaritan" to carry away the rich blessing which comes from helping the man who has fallen before the "thieves" of his own appetite, or circumstances. It is so easy to say: "I would not have fallen like he did; he is a disgrace to us as well as to society;" but it is entirely another thing to get under the man thus referred to, and carry him over the rough places, and if he falls again, cling the closer to him.

REV. JOHN G. DUTTON, Westerly, R. I.

A Prospective View.

One of the most hopeful outlooks for The Christian Church, is the Christian Endeavor Society.

The Christian Endeavor platform and the principles of the Christian Church are one, in fact they are the same.

The name is Christian. The fellowship is world wide, their brotherhood is all who love the Lord Jesus Christ.

Their purpose is the union of all believers "for all ye are brethren." One of the great losses of the Christian Church has been the many young people who have gone into other churches. Thousands of men and women to day, who were brought up in the Christian Church have gone into other folds. During the past ten years that number has diminished.

The principles of our church were considered unsound and unevangelical. The Christian Endeavor movement has proved to the skeptical, that we are of Christ and are a portion of his church.

Our young people find by acquaintance with other young people in the Christian Endeavor movement, that we have in our church those things which stand for the Christian Endeavor idea; that we lose nothing by contact with people of other churches, while they can gain much from us of the true idea of Christ's church. The outlook for the Christian Church is brighter for several reasons.

The Christian Endeavor Society is a great missionary society. A large percentage of our foreign missionary money comes from our Christian Endeavor Societies.

New England societies support two missionaries beside several native workers. A number of our Conferences are supporting missionaries. There is no hope for the future of any church which does not have the missionary spirit, and the great hope for the future of the Christian Church is the missionary zeal of her Christian Endeavor Societies.

The Christian Endeavor Society gives us a band of workers who have been trained to do practical work "for Christ and the Church." The Prayer-Meeting Committee trains men and women for practical religious work, they are capable to lead a service, plan for a meeting and bring souls to Christ. The Social Committee gives us members who have an open hand to receive and a word of welcome for "the stranger within our gates," so does the Visiting Committee. The Temperance, the Sunday-school and all the various committees, train young people to work for Jesus.

When we look at these facts we can take fresh courage, and believe that with a host of such young people the future of our church is secure. If there is a church among us fearful of the future, let it organize and support a Junior Christian Endeavor and a Y. P. S. C. E., (of course I mean a real Christian Endeavor Society with the pledge and life at back of it) and I will prophecy a sure future for that church.

FELLOW ENDEAVORERS:—Have I spoken too highly of Christian Endeavor in the above words? Is it any higher mark than that which has been set for us in our motto, "for Christ and the Church?"

In the year 1902 let me urge you to fidelity to the pledge, loyalty to your church and consecration to Christ.

Yours truly for C. E.,

REV. JOHN G. DUTTON,
C. E. Sec'y of A. C. C.

The General Baptist Assembly. England and Wales.

This Assembly of Baptist Churches is the ancestral parent of everything in England that bears the name of Baptist. Our ancestors came from Holland in the time of their severe persecution "seeking liberty to worship God," even as the men and women of the "Mayflower" went to America. Some of our churches were in existence a number of years before they were organized. The General Baptist Assembly of General Baptist Churches was organized in 1656, on the teaching given by Jesus in Matt. 28:19. These churches have been Arminian, they remain such.

Their basic foundation is—that God has provided a Saviour for all mankind, but it does not necessarilly follow that all will be saved. Baptism by immersion is adhered to on the personal profession of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. The Communion of the Lord's Supper is observed monthly or quarterly in all these churches. There have been divisions or sections in its history who have held differing views during the two and a half centuries it has existed, e. g: The right and duty of "feet-washing," singing in the services of the house of God. The introduction and use of singing has caused these churches in part, loss, and even existence as they were known. From time to time changes have been made in the churches and in the Assembly. The trend of these has all been to enlarge the most liberal churches in England. The great movement of the Wesleys only followed the teachings of these churches save in respect of "Believers Baptism." The three sections of Arminian Christianity in England were—1, The Established Church of England—2, The General Baptist Assembly—3, The Wesleyan Methodists.

There have been depletions during its career, the most serious was one and a quarter centuries ago, on doctrinal grounds led by Rev. Dan Taylor, and which eventuated in the organization of what was known until 1891 as "the General Baptist Association of the New Connection." Their doctrinal basis was what is called "Orthodox," a restriction to which the parent body could be no party. In the seventies the old and the new approached each other. The writer, who was sent in 1875 to the annual meetings of the New Connection as a delegation from the Old, knows what it is to be refused a reception. Soon after this he was welcomed with brotherly love and esteem; this continued until the amalgamation of the New Connection General Baptist with the Particular Baptist Body of Churches at Bwinley, Lancashire, England, in 1891. This was a strange, very strange amalgamation, it was the Arminian and the Augustinian uniting in one body. The writer was present at this forced, unnatural union of opposites.

Again, depletions have come through other causes Most of these old churches were established in our country towns, the buildings were erected in the rear of the street, set back, as if they should escape notice, rather than attract attention. Other churches widened out, became popular. One after another these old churches, which were land marks in the country, became moribund, they ceased to exist. Their foundation was taken by others.

Some of these churches, slowly, but surely adopted broader views themselves, to-wit: Arian, Unitarian, and entered into Associational relations with the Unitarian Association. In truth, to-day the greater part of those churches that remain are Unitarian and are known as "Unitarian General Baptists." The General Baptist Assembly was incorporated in 1891, the writer being one of the original directors. This incorporation became a necessity in order to retain property belonging to the remaining churches, and to secure the several funds held by the Assembly. From what was in the years bygone a strong and influential body of churches which influenced public affairs in general, and many things in particular, it has declined to smaller proportions still retaining the oldest Baptist Churches in England, e. g. Dover, in 1664, and Portsmouth, here, I have examined a deed of 1596 to 1600. The oldest foundation known to me.

At the beginning of this twentieth century, the General Baptist Assembly is composed of seventeen associated churches in England and Wales. Two of these are in Every day in this world has its work; and every day as it rises out of eternity keeps putting to each of us the question afresh: What will you do before to-day has sunk into eternity and nothingness again?—Frederick W. Robertson.

London, the rest are scattered over the country. It was in front of one of the London churches that the late Rev. N. Summerbell preached in the streets of this big city when visiting the Metropolis of England.

For a period longer than your correspondent can remember (upwards of 60 years) there have been fraternizations between these General Baptists of England and the "Christians" of America. These were made personal in 1867, when the Rev. D. W. Moore came to us as your representative, and in 1876 and 1880, when the Rev. J. A. Brinkworth, was the delegate from England to your churches in the United States and Canada. Our living churches to day number seventeen. Closed and otherwise held, because of property held in trust for General Baptist, number eight. There is an increase of life in these churches to-day; their future is with God.

J. A. Brinkworth.

I know of no better way to interest and profit the readers of the Convention Department of the CHRISTIAN ANNUAL, than to give information concerning the work that has been done during the past year. There is a little difference in the footings of the Conference totals and that of the yearly statement for the reason that in the yearly statement are credits of personal gifts, and the amounts received by the Secretary while in the field, which do not appear in the Conference credits.

In a French translation of Fenimore Cooper's "Spy," a man is described as tying his horse to a locust. Miss Cooper says that the translator had never heard of a locust-tree and rendered the word by sauterelle, or grasshopper. Feeling that this needed some explanation, he appended a foot-note, explaining that grasshoppers grew to a gigantic size in the United States, and that it was the custom to place a stuffed specimen at the door of every considerable mansion for the convenience of visitors, who hitched their horses to it.—Transcript.

Twentieth Century.

OUR PUBLICATIONS.

We have stepped over the threshold of the twentieth century; we have the advantage of over nineteen hundred years of the gospel of the loving Christ; the world has had many experiences in these hundreds of years, some of them very bitter ones, and some which we now almost shudder to remember. But while much darkness and gloom have covered the nations of the earth, and men have done many evil deeds, yet gleams of the light, as shed upon the world by the Christ life, have pierced the darkness, and now we find that light prevails, and many men love light rather than darkness.

The Christian Church has been one of the lamps of light in the past century, and has done much to bring the world to the idea that all who are followers of the Great Teacher are brethren, and stand before God, equals, without regard to name or sect, and being equal before the great Creator they should be recognized as equals by fellow-men.

While much good has been accomplished in the way of equality of Christian men and women, and the lines that have divided brother from brother are fast being obliterated by means of the Christ love in the heart, yet much remains to be done before the world realizes spiritual unity. Christian ministers and the laity everywhere should take courage and strip themselves for the twentieth century race that is now on.

Every weight of enmity and jealousy should be cast aside, and all should be shod with the preparation of love and righteousness, that we may not slip, but run the race with patience, for by so doing we will strew flowers along our pathway, and gain a crown of victory at the end of the race.

While we have no disposition to belittle the work of our ministry in the accomplishments of the century that has passed, much credit is due the Herald of Gospel Liberty, as week after week it has brought its sweet messages of love and good will to the homes of thousands of our brothers and sisters. It has brought to our firesides sparks from off the altar of spiritual awakenings in all parts of our Zion; it has brought to us the joys of success of our brethren in the battle of life; it has also made us recollect that we are mortals and are hastening away, as "the reaper with his sickle keen" has cut the ripened stalks and "the flowers that grow between." It has taught us over and over of that spirit of the Master that we so ofttimes forget, and has made us pause, time and again, and think of our duty to God and to our fellow-man. We ought to look upon the Herald as a messenger to each one of us personally; that it is the bearer of good tidings for our homes, for our children, for our church, not only of good tidings, but good advice for the building up of a Christian home and the rearing of our children in the "fear and admonition of the Lord."

The Herald should be found in every Christian home; it will be a great helper in throwing off the weights of sin and preparing us for the twentieth century race which lies before us. None of us will live in the next century, so let us take advantage of every help that has been provided for our use, that our successes as individuals and collectively as churches may be assured.

Our children, God bless the dear little ones.

But while we ask for the blessing of the heavenly Father to rest upon them, we have something to do to bring these blessings to them. The children of today will be the husbands, wives, fathers and mothers, also the burden-bearers of tomorrow. In a few years they will be the brain and muscle of the twentieth century progress, and will be, if rightly directed, the body and spirit of the Christian church. The children must be taught and led along the proper pathway. They must be fed on the "sincere milk of the Word," and this food must be placed before them in an attractive way and palatable form. The responsibility rests upon the fathers and mothers of today; we must do our part. We must foster the Sunday-schools, we must support them by our presence, our effort and our money.

That we may have successful and attractive Sunday-schools, and our children be fed on the "bread of life," the church has provided literature of our own, that our children, from their own "vine and fig tree," may be fed and given to drink of the "wine of life." The Bible Class Quarterlies bring the most wholesome food to the older and more advanced ones. The Intermediates bring the truths of God's holy Book to the minds and hearts of our youths who are just beginning to understand the goodness of God.

The Little Teacher comes to our little ones, the blossoms of life, the joy of our hearts, to show them of God's love and that Christ said: "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not." The Sunday-School Herald comes to us all, or should come, and brings good seed that, if properly planted and watered, will bring forth moral and spiritual fruit "fit for our Master's use."

Brethren, everywhere, let us do our part in supplying our Sunday-schools, our churches and our homes with the best of literature, our own literature. Let us not deny our own, lest we be "worse than an infidel," but let us build up our own so that the twentieth century light of our own beloved Christian Church may be felt "round the world."

The Woman's Board for Home Missions.

BY EMILY K. BISHOP,
PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD.

Watchword: America for Christ.

The core of the missionary problem, and hope for the future of missions lies in the home lands. The propagation of missions requires a missionary organism. Organized work creates an environment in which can be developed the latent forces of the church, the young people and the children along the lines of interest and systematic giving. From its incipiency the purpose of the Woman's Board for Home Missions has been a Woman's Missionary Board in every conference, and an Auxiliary Missionary Society in every church, and every woman and every man a member of the society. The auxiliary societies are means of grace and of growth in missions in every church where they exist. The one dollar a year membership is a lesson in systematic giving, in addition to which we may expect that gifts and free-will offerings will not be infrequent.

The lines of work undertaken by the Board have been the circulation of missionary literature, the organization of Conference Mission Boards and Auxiliary societies in the churches, raising funds for work among the Freedmen of the South, and frontier and city missionary work. The advance step now to be taken is to raise one thousand dollars for the work in St. Louis. The claims of this new enterprise should be continually presented publicly and privately. It should not be a formidable undertaking for our Woman's Home Board to raise our portion of the funds for the work in St. Louis. Every auxiliary and every woman among us should be swift in response to this call. It should not be a burden borne by a few, but rather a labor of love shared in by all. This fund should be secured early in the year, for our cause in other cities is needing our assistance.

Ten dollars paid into the treasury at one time will constitute the donor a life member of the Board. To such persons a beautiful Life Membership Certificate, which nicely framed makes an attractive adornment for any sitting-room or parlor is given. Mrs. Ada Warbinton, Hagerstown, Ind., is treasurer, to whom all moneys for the Woman's Home Board should be sent.

JOHN WHITAKER, D.D., Weaubleau, Mo.

Church Schools.

For many centuries the schools throughout christendom were under the control of the church and hence could properly be called church schools. In the early settlements of New England, the preacher of each parish was also the teacher in the parish. Thus the instruction of the young people was under the control of the church.

In America, these schools failed to sufficiently approximate the correct ideals of school training. They were run chiefly to impress upon the young people certain sectarian tenets. To strengthen the church was their aim. The true ideal that the church is a means and not the end of school and of scholastic education was reversed by them. With this wrong ideal, practical men observed, that schools tended too much to narrowness and religious bigotry. A demand for a change of school ideal was made. The result has been the establishment of secular schools, in which all religious doctrinal teachings is prohibited, and, I may say in many cases, all religion is banished from the schoolroom. At this time each state has its public schools and its university controlled and supported by the state. We are justly proud of our state educational facilities They unquestionably have these advantages: 1. They lessen religious bigotry; 2. They afford educational facilities to a larger per cent of the people, in fact, they bring the school almost to every boy and girl in the country.

But are the ideals of these state schools the best? Are they above criticism? I say ideals, for both men and institutions should be judged mainly by their ideals. Their realizations are always lower than their ideals though along the same lines.

Dr. Shannon, ex-Superintendent of Public Schools of Missouri, says in his Civil Government, "The state should educate the young for the purpose of making good citizens." If the parochial schools educated chiefly to make church communicants and the state to make citizens, does either educate for the best purpose? Is either measure the highest standard? Would either tend to develop this highest type of manhood?

Church schools with proper ideals are much needed now to avert bigotry on the one hand and agnosticism and infidelity on the other. An educated head with an ill-regulated heart is not the need of our times. The church school, unrestrained by sectarian dogmas, yet free in the exercise of Christian principles and teachings has a purpose higher than that of a good citizen or a communicant of a sect. It has for its ideal the symmetrical development—physical, mental, moral, and religious of the noblest work of God, man.

To the Women Members of our Churches.

DEAR SISTERS:—The Woman's Board for Foreign Missions, needs your co-operation. Needs your sympathy, your strength of character and your money to make the work undertaken a success. The Lord is calling now as He has called along all the centuries since His work of redemption upon Calvary, "Whom shall I send and who will go for us," and expects his disciples to respond, "Here am I, send me." All men and women cannot go into distant lands to carry the gospel, but all are included in the call —all involved in the responsibility of bringing the world to Christ. The plans of the Board are well made, the work opened in broad fields. Laborers, is the cry. How may we help, do you ask? Read again and again this message, please, and be sure that it means just so much as if I stood before you speaking it. Every church in the denomination ought to have a Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. If there is none in your church set to work and organize one. The most of our societies are organized for Home and Foreign, according to the wishes of the women of the church. How can you do it? Go to your pastor for assistance, he will be only too glad to render you assistance; then send to the Secretary of the Home Board or Foreign Board, and Constitution and other helps will be sent to you. It is a very easy matter to organize for missionary work. Another way by which you may help the work is, to become a member of the Board. The life-membership fee is twenty-five dollars. By paying his amount you become associated with the charter members in all the privileges of the Board. We have a very beautiful certificate of membership which makes a lovely adornment for the parlor or library of the home, which is a constant preacher of the missionary gospel, and will be a benediction to the family.

Your sister,

ELLEN G. GUSTIN.

The Prospects.

J. J. SUMMERBELL, D.D.,
Editor Herald of Gospel Liberty.

In beginning the work of a new year, we naturally consider the general situation, with reference to its causes of encouragement, or the reverse. In the space allotted us we have not room to canvass fully; but rather to give impressions. And we are fully justified in saying that the general cause of our people has not been for the past twenty years in as hopeful a condition as as now. In five localities that we now call to mind, we admit that there are depressing conditions prevailing; but even in some of those sections the discouragements are rather from not accepting the more widely prevailing cheerful spirit. The statistics do not show our increased strength as plainly as the vigor and hopefulness with which new and difficult enterprises are proposed and undertaken. There is a constant lessening of theorizing about how to work, and a constant increasing of the skill of the work itself. We are becoming all the time better trained. There are so many specific causes of encouragement in the general situation, that to name some of them may really attract disproportionate attention to them; and yet to name no specific facts may leave our statements with less than their proper force. We name a few.

The benefactions of Hon. F. A. Palmer for the past few years have been attracting marked attention. His tremendous gifts to the Francis-Asbury Palmer Fund, while they are not to our denomination, as a denomination, have been made to such a body of incorporators, and under such regulations, that if the trust is faithfully exercised by the trustees there must be a dissemination of the gospel we preach; and denominationally we will be blame-worthy if the trust is not so guided: for Brother Palmer has given us a representation in the corporation given to no other body. And though the fund is to work in New York and adjacent territory, the field there well cultivated must help us everywhere. His gifts at Eddytown, the building of the church there, and the parsonage, his payments for the acquisition of new ground, erection of the new magnificent building, and the cash endowment of $100,000, must make his donations there probably reach $160,000 He has given $30,000 to Palmer College, at Le Grand, Iowa. He makes equal offers to Elon College and Union Christian College, conditioned on their raising two-thirds as much. His recent gifts must aggregate more than half a million.

Our acquisition of Defiance College, with the vigorous raising of endowment for the institution is an encouragement.

The drift toward us of men of great capacity, like John R. H. Latchaw, formerly president of the main institution of the denomination known as "Churches of God;" like James McAllister, late pastor of the typical church of the Disciples in St. Louis, attended by their great denominational editors; and other such men, indicates the natural effect produced on outside thoughtful men, by our present prosperous condition, combined with the accepted truth of our general principles.

Brother A. E. Nelson's work in St. Louis, has been an encouragment to all who have learned its details. In that city a cultivated congregation practically advocates our principles, recognizing their oneness with us: a congregation having a property worth $80,000. The movement is so impressive there, that it is alluded to even by the Disciple press with evident respect.

Palmer College raised $20,000 in cash in an unprecedentedly short time in which to raise so much, and where the field had been repeatedly solicited for funds for rebuilding the destroyed structure at Le Grand, and sustaining the college. We have personal knowledge that the Iowa brethren accomplished the task by the exercise of a business energy and skill and sacrifice, that are new among us in such combination. We have never witnessed them altogether before. Both laymen and ministers deserve high honor.

In some sections the spirit of courage is almost extravagantly buoyant, which we do not specify, lest we may seem invidious toward others.

There is an exceedingly fine body of young ministers coming to the front, animated by a noble spirit, a spirit that does not impel them to seek to be pastors of "our best churches," failing to secure which they leave us. That tendency seems to have disappeared. This new body of young men, in many instances, accepts humble work, or organizes new work. And these young men do not make their chief subject the failures of their brethren or their predecessors; seeming to recognize that discouraged, censorious, faultfinding, captious men are not the kind to manage or develop enterprises, or even ordinary work.

In some localities, where divisive spirit had prevailed, it is dying out, under the influence of time, deaths, the encouraging and absorbing effect on the mind of new activities and successes, and the disposition of Jesus.

The conferences are widely exacting a higher grade of mental qualification for the ministry, with no lessening of moral standards; and although loquacity, verbosity, and sonorous sentences are still somewhat mistaken for ability, there is a better scrutiny as to the real divine call. In accepting ministers from other denominations there is a closer investigation as to purposes and motives.

The Christian Publishing Association continues a prosperity that should never have been questioned at any time within the past ten or fifteen years.

Other organized activities, while some of them are not especially increasing in power or usefulness, are not failing or giving cause for discouragement, except in locally restricted sections, as referred to in the beginning.

As a whole, our cause is more vigorous and successful than at any previous time in the last twenty years. There is more real unity, more spirituality, more generosity, more doctrinal dignity, more denominational faithfulness, less of domineering spirit, more gospel aggressiveness, better salaries, more money for church building, with reviving demand for books, better system in activities, and a more widely prevailing hopefulness, than at any previous time in the last twenty years.

We thus begin the work of the twentieth century with great cause to thank God, and renew our allegiance to the service of his Son.

Keep on A-Fishin'.

Suppose the fish don't bite at fust,
What be yer goin' ter dew?
Chuck down yewr pole, throw out yewr bait,
An' say yewr fishin's threw?
Uv course yer ain't, yer'r goin' ter fish,
An' fish an' fish an' wait
Until yer's ketched yewr basket full,
An' used up all yewr bait,

Suppose success don't come at fust,
What be yer goin' ter dew?
Throw up the sponge an' kick yewrself,
An' go ter feelin' blew?
Uv course yer ain't, yer goin' ter fish,
An' bait an' bait agin;
Bimeby success will bite yewr hook,
An' yer will pull him in.

Rev. T. M. McWhinney.

Thomas M. McWhinney was born in Ohio, seventy-eight years ago. In early life he professed faith in Jesus and was soon ordained to the ministry of the Christian Church. He has ever emphasized and earnestly advocated two great principles—the Love of God and the Unity of the Christian Brotherhood, in love on the Word. His own liberties of thought and speech have never been restricted and he has urged for others the largest liberties consistent with Christian life and Bible teachings. He is a man of magnificent presence, an orator of superior ability, and has a nature overflowing with cordiality and love. He has been most loyal to the church, faithful to his ordination vows, exceedingly useful in his general work, comforting and instructive in his preaching, a fearless defender of the faith and an uncompromising foe of evil in all forms. He has published numerous volumes which have commanded the careful attention of best minds. In all possible ways he has been honored by his own people and by his talents and courtesy has commanded for himself general respect, fellowship and love. He stands as erect as in early manhood, with physical vigor apparently unabated, with mind unclouded and with a heart as warm and mellow as love can make it. May God add other blessed years to his age, for his people's sake.

The Christians in New England, 1901.

The year 1901 has witnessed changes and improvement in our denominational condition. In the first place we will refer to

THE PASTORAL CHANGES.

It has been a long time since so many have taken place in a single year. We report 100 churches in all New England, one of which is not reported in any Conference, and one is a member of the New York Eastern Conference. At some time since the beginning of the year, fully half of these have been without pastors. Fully fifteen are now without pastors, but this has been true of some of them for years, and they will not be supplied unless they have missionary help. About thirty have secured new pastors during the year, among them some of our most important churches, as Lubec, Albion and Saco in Maine; Portsmouth and Laconia in New Hampshire; Lynn, Amesbury, Somerset, Swansea, and Bonney Street, New Bedford in Massachusetts; and South Portsmouth, R. I. Several important churches are not yet supplied with pastors, as Augusta and Bangor, Maine; Manchester, N. H.; Randolph, Vt., and Boston, Mass.; Wolfboro, N. H., will have a new pastor

January 1, 1902. Kittery Point, Me., and North Dighton, Mass., will lose their pastors at the same time, and will be added to the list of pastorless churches. We hope these and others will soon be supplied.

Quite a little has been done by way of

IMPROVEMENTS IN CHURCH PROPERTY.

During the past year, Lubec, Me., has built a new parsonage, which is fitted with modern improvements, and will make a pleasant home for its pastors hereafter. East Dixmont has built a new house of worship, and enjoyed a season of revival, under the labors of the Field Secretary. North Fairfield has put a new furnace into its church building. The church building at South Berwick Junction has been greatly improved, and was recently rededicated. The same is true of Kittery Point church.

Belmont, N. H., has purchased a property which it has improved and thus supplied itself with both a parsonage and vestry, much to the comfort of the pastor, as well as for the usefulness of the church. Franklin has also improved its parsonage to the extent of several hundred dollars, adding to its comfort and convenience.

Grafton has purchased a property for a parsonage which is much appreciated by the pastor, and a great help to the church. Walpole has also made some repairs upon its house of worship.

Haverhill, Mass., has made extensive repairs upon the church, costing over $2,000, which add much to the attractiveness and convenience of the same. The North Church, Fall River, has built a beautiful parsonage adjoining the church, a model of convenience and taste. Assonet has given both church and parsonage a coat of paint. Somerset has painted both church and parsonage, and laid a new carpet in the church, and beautifully frescoed the same. Spruce Street, New Bedford, has put in a new pipe organ, as well as laid a new carpet. It also has the use of its excellent vestry, after having rented it for several years to the city for school purposes. Lynn has made improvements upon its property.

Rockland, R. I., has made extensive repairs upon its church, which have entirely transformed its interior. Westerly has made some improvements in its vestry, while it has received a legacy of $10,000. Providence has reduced its mortgage indebtedness, and expects soon to pay it off entirely.

Eastport, Me., has also freed itself from debt recently.

THE FIELD SECRETARY,

Rev. M. W. Borthwick, has done a great and very helpful work. Through his efforts revivals have been enjoyed at East Dixmont, Millbridge and Newport in Maine; Laconia, N. H.; Belvidere, Vt. Besides this, he has visited many of the weaker churches and inspired courage, and helped them to secure pastors. Scarcely eight months have yet been spent in the work, but the results, as reported, are sufficient evidence of the wisdom of the plan and the selection of the man.

"THE CHRISTIAN MESSENGER"

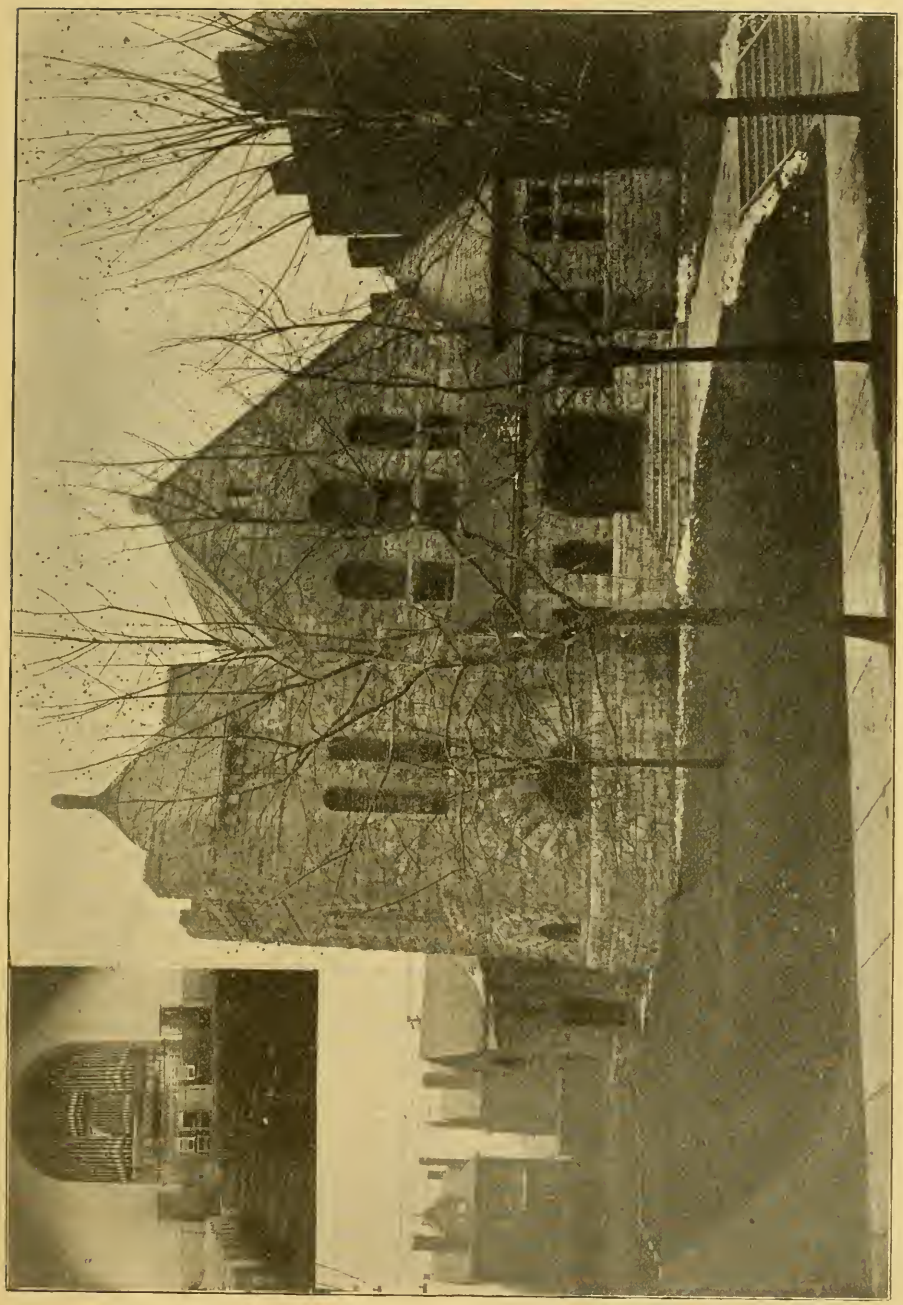
has been a valuable helper of the local work. It helps to give information of the work done by the local conferences and churches, and as a means of communication, helps to awaken interest in all our activities in this particular section, filling a want long felt by many of our ministers. It has cost something of sacrifice and toil upon the part of several, but the results are a compensation for all this.

ALVA H MORRILL.

New Bedford, Mass., Dec. 2, 1901.

Demand for Men.

The world wants men—large-hearted, manly men;
Men who shall join its chorus, and prolong
The psalm of labor, and the psalm of love.
The times wants scholars—scholars who shall shape
The doubtful destinies of dubious years,
And land the ark, that bears our country's good,
Safe on some peaceful Ararat at last.
The age wants heroes—heroes who shall dare
To struggle in the solid ranks of truth;
To clutch the monster error by the throet;
To bear opinion to a loftier seat;
To blot the era of oppression out,
And lead a universal freedom in.
And heaven wants souls—fresh and capacious souls;
To taste its raptures, and expand like flowers,
Beneath the glory of its central sun.
It wants fresh souls—not lean and shrivelled ones;
It wants fresh souls, my brother—give it thine.
If thou indeed wilt be what scholars should;
If thou wilt be a hero, and wilt strive
To help thy fellow and exalt thyself,
Thy feet at last shall stand on jasper floors:
Thy heart at last shall see a thousand hearts—
Each single heart with myriad raptures filled—
While thou shall sit with princes and with kings,
Rich in the jewel of a ransomed soul



THE LINDELL AVENUE CHRISTIAN CHURCH, ST. LOUIS, MO.

Christian Assembly and the Nonsectarian Church have United.

The Rev. Abraham E. Nelson, until recently pastor of the Christian Assembly, has become the pastor of the Nonsectarian Church, Lindell Boulevard and Vandeventer Avenue, and has already entered upon his pastoral duties. This relation is the result of the fusion of the Christian Assembly congregation with that of the Nonsectarian Church, and the first united service took place Thanksgiving Day.

The Nonsectarian Church has been without a pastor since the Rev. Dr. R. C. Cave retired, almost a year ago. A committee of this church, composed of Messrs. J. M. Battle, A. O. Rule, J. D. Johnson, J. C. Roberts and C. A. Battle, has just issued an announcement relative to the union of the two churches and the installation of the Rev. Mr. Nelson as pastor, in which the following statement is made:

"We have been endeavoring during the past few years to come into touch with our nonsectarian brethren abroad. We are most happy to announce to you that we have found such a congregation in our own city, known as the Christian Assembly, actively engaged in disseminating the truth, shorn of all creed setting; a church in which Christian character is the only condition of fellowship, and where each individual member has the liberty to interpret the Scripture for himself. Through the pastor of this congregation, the Rev. Abraham E. Nelson, we have realized our desire of the past years by coming in contact with more than 125 000 of these nonsectarian Christians, having a perfect organization and equipment for work, including ten of our foremost colleges. With these we have affiliated. They have already in a measure relieved our financial distress. Our congregation has been fused with theirs of the Christian Assembly, this city, and the Rev. Abraham E Nelson has been called as pastor of the combined congregations. And now is it not peculiarly appropriate that we held the first service of our combined people on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 28th, at 10.30 o'clock in the morning? Assembling ourselves together in our beloved church, after these months of misgiving and gloom, to give sincere thanks to our common heavenly Father for his goodness in thus opening the way for us to continue in his work."

St. Louis and the Christians.

The Christian Church in St. Louis, Mo., was organized in the home of the undersigned (then at No. 4220 Norfolk Ave.,) on Wednesday evening, June 7, 1899, with thirty-two names as charter members. Of these, twelve were present, whose names follow: John Anderson, Mrs. Anna Anderson; Samuel Barnes, Mrs. Charlotte Barnes, Arthur P. Clement, Mrs. Bessie Clement, Mrs. Susan English, Alexander G. Morrison, Abraham E. Nelson, Mrs. Irene Nelson, Harry A. Phipps and William J. Wickerham, of whom all but three (Morrison, Phipps and Wickerham) are still members of this church, though two, (Brother and Sister Barnes) are now living in London, England. At this first meeting God's hand was with us for good, in that our dear Brother Clement confessed himself to be God's child and was baptized; he has ever since been our church clerk. Of the thirty-two names which were considered charter members, only eleven remain. After breasting the storm of persecution for a few weeks, nineteen had forsaken the cause and returned to Creeddom; one dear sister (Mrs. Josephine Roth, one of the truest and sweetest handmaidens of our Lord) had passed on to her heavenly inheritance.

But if some through weakness of heart forsook us, others strong in faith and in the liberty wherein Christ makes free, came and more than filled the gaps in our ranks.

Organized on June 7th, we held our first Sunday-School session in the home of Sister Susan English (known as "the mother of our church") at which meeting the Lord sent us the man who has ever since been our Sunday-School superintendent, Brother Nelson E. Rockafellow, who, with his good wife and little son Howard, have been among our best helpers throughout. Two months later, while holding protracted services in a large tent pitched on a vacant lot, (for we had no other shelter) in response to our invitation at the close of the sermon, two persons came forward and grasped our hand; they have never, through all the dark and trying experiences of subsequent years, faltered or fainted in their loyalty—Brother James S. Irwin, who has ever since been our church treasurer, and his good wife, Sister Mary Irwin, who succeeded our beloved Sister Barnes as President of the Woman's Missionary Society. Thus the work has progressed through sunshine and shadow, through persecutions and poverty and privations we have struggled on, sharing with each other in both bitter and sweet, we have come to love each other dearly, know each other well and trust each other implicitly. The enemy first sought to slay us; next attempted to buy us; are now endeavoring to flatter us; can never defeat us; may learn to love us,—God grant it.

Two and one-half years of trial and trust has led us to a marvelous triumph. Beginning with nothing save our faith in God, we have within that short space of time gathered about 150 members; 250 Sunday-School scholars; the respect of our townsmen and a church property valued at $85,000, upon which, however, there is an incumbrance of $17,877.53, of which $5,877.53 must be paid on or before January 24, 1902, leaving a balance of $12,000, falling due in annual notes of $2,000, each with six per cent. We do not know where the above $5,877.53 for next month's payment is to come from, but it must come, as we forfeit our property if we fail on this. And our last state here would then be infinitely worse than the first. This, however, must not be done. We now have two congregations in the city, having two Sunday-Schools, two C. E. Societies and two Missionary Societies among the ladies; surely God is in this place; isolated by more than 100 miles from the nearest congregation of our people; having only found five persons in the city who have ever heard of the Christians; we have tasted the loneliness of the foreign Missionary and suffered his privations without receiving his pay. Our past has been made glorious by sufferings with Christ; our present (aside from the $5,877.53 payment on January 24) is self-sustaining and our future is pregnant with missionary activity and Christian helpful-

MEMPHIS, N Y., ...190..

DEAR .....

The First Christian Church of Memphis, N. Y., sends greeting and desires to remind you that the Annual Fellowship Service and Roll Call will be held in the Christian Church, Saturday, December. ....., 190. , at 2.30 p m.

We desire to follow the example of him who is the head of the church, even Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord, who was obedient to God the Father in all things; and earnestly ask you, as one of Christ's flock, to be present at this meeting, if possible, in person or by letter, that we may know of your Christian experience and desires, and that we may receive the strength God gives to His own who walk in fellowship and in the knowledge of the truth.

Earnestly desiring a deepening of spiritual life, more fervent prayer for each individual believer and for the church, and trusting God to lead us; we hope for your presence and testimony, either by word of mouth or by letter, at our Annual Fellowship Service.

In Christian Fellowship,

Church Clerk.

REV .....
Pastor.

Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord harkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name.

And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels.—MAL. 3: 16, 17.

The American Christian Convention.

BY O. W. POWERS, D.D.

(Reprinted.)

The American Christian Convention was organized in its present form at Marshall, Michigan, in 1866, and was incorporated in 1872. General meetings of the Christians had been held, either annually, triennially or quadrennially since 1819. Beginning with 1834, they have been composed of delegates from the conferences, to which have been added the presidents of conferences and state associations, presidents of colleges recognized by the Convention, and one trustee of the Christian Biblical Institute. In this manner provision is made for a complete representation of the organized interests of the Christians.

The meetings of the Convention are for the exchange of views, reports of the work of the various departments, the consideration of measures for promoting the common interests of the churches, and increasing the spirit of unity and devotion.

The bodies represented in the Convention are not subordinate, but co-operative. Its function is to work with them for the common good, and to furnish direction and leadership where needed. It depends for the enforcement of its decisions upon the sense of loyalty to a common cause and the conviction of the necessity for united action. By virtue of its representative character, it claims the right of its officers to free communication with its constituents, in order to secure the voluntary co-operation necessary to the success of the general work.

One of the earliest Conventions organized was the "Christian General Book Association." The present Christian Publishing Association is identical in membership with the Convention. The Mission Board is an incorporated department of the Convention. Antioch College, the Christian Biblical Institute, and the Christian Correspondence College originated directly from the action of the Convention. Franklinton Christian College is controlled by a Board appointed by the Convention. In addition to the institutions founded or controlled by it, departments for the promotion of the general interests have been created.

The General Secretary seeks to aid all these, and his office affords an opportunity for direct contact with all departments and interests.

The value of the Convention to its constituents depends largely upon the heartiness with which they avail themselves of its assistance. Its work is theirs; and apart from enabling them to accomplish jointly what cannot be done without association there is little reason for its existence.

HOUSE IN WHICH MIAMI OHIO CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE WAS ORGANIZED.

A Short History

OF THE HOUSE IN WHICH THE MIAMI OHIO CONFERENCE WAS ORGANIZED.

The Miami Conference was organized in the house as shown here in 1819, it being in an upper room, 18 by 24 feet where the windows are up. The large chimney as shown was then on the outside; the part shown to the right was afterward built as an addition, the upper room was where the Conference was held. There was no stairway to the upper room, but a hole was left in the floor and a ladder was placed in it to ascend and descend. The house was built in 1809; it was a hewed log house, but afterward was weather-boarded and painted. My father and mother, Nathan Hill and Fanny Hill, were two of the charter members of the church; he was deacon from the time of its organization to his death. The house described was built and occupied by my father as long as he lived; his death occurred in 1862 at the age of 73 years. The church now has a good brick house and about 350 members.

J. N. Hess,

Agent of the Christian Publishing Association.

This association is owned by the Christian Church and is controlled by nine trustees, who are elected every four years by the American Christian Convention, which convention is composed of delegates appointed by Christian Conferences all over the United States and Canada. The convention meets once in four years and elects a president, secretary, and treasurer, and also the secretaries for the various departments, i. e , a Secretary of Missions, Education, Christian Endeavor and Sunday-Schools; and the editors of the Herald of Gospel Liberty, and the Sunday-School literature.

The trustees of the Christian Publishing Association elect the Agent, which associatian publishes the only paper owned and controlled by the Christian Church, the Herald of Gospel Liberty—the official organ of the Christian Church that was established September, 1808, A. D. This paper has been published continuously since that time. Members of the Christian Church who do not read the Herald of Gospel Liberty are not keeping abreast with the workings of the Christian Church and are missing the greatest opportunity of their lives to enlighten themselves and keep up with the times. No member should be so ignorant of his own church as to not know what it is doing for the world and humanity and the best way to be posted is to read its official paper.

The association also publishes the best Sunday-School helps published: The Bible Class Sunday-School Quarterly at 4c. per quarter; the Intermediate Sunday-School Quarterly at 3c. per quarter; and also the Little Teacher at 3c. per quarter; and the Sunday-School Herald at 10c. per quarter, which is admitted by Sunday-School workers who have tested its worth, to be the best Sunday-School paper published. Every Sunday-School should use these supplies.

Martin V. Hathaway.

Martin V. Hathaway was born in Morrow county, Ohio, September 3, 1840. Emigrated with his father to Whitley county, Ind., in 1846; was raised on a farm; attended subscription school three months in a year; confessed faith in Christ at the age of seventeen; enlisted as a soldier in 1861; was captured at the battle of Chickamauga 1863, and was a prisoner of war for fourteen mon hs; entered the ministry in 1876; moved from the Eel River Conference to the Southern Wabash Illinois Conference in 1877. His chief work has been pastoral. Was elected President of the Conference in 1884, and served till 1900. He is trustee of Union Christian College. He has been in the active ministry twenty-three years and is now pastor of three churches, viz: Hunt City, Winterrow and Bethlehem. He is very enthusiastic for the missions of the Christians. Was married November 5, 1865, to Miss Susan Bolton, of Whitley county, Ind., and resides with his wife and two sons and little adopted daughter at Trimble, Ills.

Missions.

BY REV. J. G. BISHOP, D. D., MISSION SECRETARY.

The summarized statistical report of our home missionaries for the year closing October 1, 1901, is as follows: Sermons preached, 2,287; meetings held, 5,590; religious calls made, 6,813; conversions reported, 268; members received, 397; churches organized, 6; Sunday-schools organized, 7; subscribers to the Christian Missionary and Herald of Gospel Liberty, 149, money taken under quadrennial calls, $368.18.

The present condition and outlook of our work in the home field is very encouraging. During the year our mission church in Des Moines, Iowa, purchased the church building in which they have held services since its organization, and about half of the purchase money was raised and paid. The church at Muncie, Ind., has secured a desirable lot on which to erect a new church building, the house they now occupy being only intended to answer temporarily.

An effort is being made, with promise of success, for the purchase of a suitable church property for our new work in Indianapolis, Ind.

One of the most encouraging features of the home work during the past year is the affiliating with us by what is known as the nonsectarian church in St. Louis, Mo., with their commodious and valuable church property on the corner of Lindell and Vandeventer Avenues in that city. Instead of one, we now have two preaching points in the city under the pastorate of Rev. A E. Nelson. While the pastorate is, we think, now self-supporting, further aid is needed in order to meet some indebtedness on the church property.

At the present time there is an opportunity for organizing a church, with some 40 or 50 members to begin in the city of Lima, Ohio, with a sister ready to donate a good lot on which to build a church. A few hundred dollars would enable the Board to take on this point.

Than the present time, not in the history of the Christians, perhaps, have there been more open doors and louder calls to enter and occupy for the Master, especially in the cities of our home land.

THE FOREIGN FIELD.

The following is the summary of statistics for the year closing July 1, 1901: Organized churches, 7; church members, 348; baptisms, 26; received by letter, 3; expelled, 1; dismissed by letter, 4; net gain, 20; Sunday-schools, 16; Sunday-school scholars, 725; missionaries, 9; native preachers, ordained, 5, unordained, 3; Bible women, 2; other helpers, 3; total workers—Japan and Porto Rico —22.

During the year mission work was commenced in Porto Rico, with Rev. H. J. Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Barrett as missionaries. A day school and a Sunday-school were soon commenced and preaching services established. This work has made an encouraging beginning. The people need the gospel, and the work commences very hopefully. The working force is to be increased about the beginning of the year by the going of Mr. T. E. White and Miss Jennie Mishler, while Mr. Rhodes, who went out under appointment for a year, will return. A church and school building in Porto Rico will be an early necessity.

Suitable ground has been purchased for a Mission Home in Sendai, the headquarters of our northern Japan field. The Board hopes to be able to have the much needed buildings erected early in the present year. Our workers in Japan are much encouraged by the present revival movement in the empire, in which they are taking an active part and are reaping rich blessings. But they are feeling very keenly the need of more workers, both foreign missionaries and native helpers. Who will "go?" and who will "send?"

"THE CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY."

The Christian Missionary, the official missionary organ of the denomination, which is published by the Mission Secretary, Dayton, Ohio, (subscription price 50 cents a year), is having a steady increase in its circulation, and is doing much good in creating missionary interest and increasing missionary offerings.

THE PIQUA CONFERENCE.

A very interesting feature of the work the last year was the International Missionary Conference held at Piqua, Ohio, in October last. The growth of the missionary sentiment among the Christians, as developed to the brotherhood by this Conference, is a source of great encouragement. It is becoming apparent that the Christians are a missionary people, and must become more so; that Christ's command to preach the gospel to every creature must be obeyed.

FINANCIAL.

The financial feature of the work is also encouraging. For while the receipts for the general work fell a few hundred dollars short of the previous year, the receipts for the permanent fund exceeded, by a larger sum, those of the previous year. The total receipts to the mission treasury for the fiscal year ending October, 1901, were in excess of any previous year in the history of the church. In proportion to what they ought to be, however, the receipts are still very small. They should be, and we are hopeful that they will be, materially increased during the present year—the last year of the present quadrennium.

REV. E. C. KLINK,
Pastor Columbus Grove Church.

God Wants Men.

Pray ye the Lord of the harvest that he would send forth laborers into his harvest.—Jesus.

"God give us men! A time like this demands
Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;
Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor, men who will not lie;
Men who can stand before a demagogue,
And denounce his treacherous flatteries without winking!
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
In public duty, and in private thinking:
For while they rabble with their thumb-worn creeds,
Their large professions and their little deeds,—
Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps,
Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleeps."
—J. G Holland.

What a prayer is Dr. Holland's! How it pleads for men! How it voices the world's greatest need! How aptly it describes the kind of men that God is calling for, and the plenteous harvest of the present demands. How much time, trouble and expense the good Father of all has been to in fitting this world for the abode of man. All the beauty, utility and wealth of the earth converge and flow together in the channel of one supreme, eternal and all-absorbing purpose—MAN! For him all else was created; for him God gathered up the sunshine of the Palæazoic age and stored it away in beds of coal, in underground rivers and lakes of oil; for him the gold and silver, iron and copper, diamonds and rubies, were concealed in the earth; for man the birds of the air and the fish of the sea, the cattle upon a thousand hills, grass, flower and fruit—all the earth and its fulness were created, and he himself is the grand climax of all. How much God evidently does desire to have men, manly, able-bodied, whole-souled men here in this earthly vineyard. Three storied men who, conscious of the fact that the flesh is necessary as the basement of human nature in this life are not content to live in it forever, nor to walk after it; but in the superior light of super-induced soul and spirit nature, they rise from the servile to the free; they do not become the slaves of things, but compel things to serve them in their efforts to stand where Infinite wisdom and goodness placed them in the beginning at the apex of earthly existence, with the earth under their feet and the crown of immortality upon their heads.

Yes, God wants men. He created them, preserved them, and redeemed them. He sent his own Son into the world in the likeness of a man, that he might reveal to the world what kind of a God he is, and what sort of men he wants. Man was not made for the world, but the world was made for man. Then we should put the emphasis where God puts it. We are not here to make money, to prematurely grow old and die in a mad scramble for the things of the world; not to abuse the world or ourselves, but to use all in securing for ourselves, our children, and our race, a perfect self-development of body, soul, and spirit, to attain to a perfect man, unto the measure of the fulness of Christ. He possessed all things, and yet lived as though he had nothing. Success cannot be determined in life alone, we must wait to see how a man dies before calling him great or pre-eminently successful. Among the most significant words ever uttered by the Master were these: "I have overcome the world." But how different the manner of life, the rule of conduct, the ethical code, suggested by "overcoming the world" as one's supreme end, and that which the worldling must of necessity adopt I once regarded success as securing as much as possible of the world by honorable means: I now believe that to be able to pronounce in the end those sublime words of Jesus, "I have overcome the world" is not only to achieve the greatest possible success, but it is to most gloriously triumph over the last enemy. To overcome the world is better than to gain it. God give us men.

Friendship is like piety, and, indeed, like all the other virtues: they must all be fed and supported by those acts, and may be much upon the tongue, and yet very, very little in the heart. It is not talking, but doing in both, that cherishes and sustains them —George Walker.

Rev. Alfred Riley Heath,

Only child of Jeremiah and Nellie (Johnston) Heath, was born three and one-half miles from his present home, six miles from Covington, Indiana, February 7, 1826. He was never very strong, and at the age of 22, he contracted asthma and general debility, which remained with him until he was 38 years old. At that time he was ordained to the ministry. He worked for Union Christian College for fourteen years; also solicited for our Publishing House two years. He was assistant pastor of Merom Church for several years, and he and (then) President Holmes, baptized forty-seven persons one Sabbath in the Wabash river. He has written "The World's Crisis," and has distributed it to preachers, editors and Sunday-school teachers with the hope of driving sectarianism from the world. Bro. Heath married Mary Matwell, great-great-granddaughter of Thomas Death, a millionaire of London, England.

A Right Purpose in Education.

BY REV Z. A. POSTE

The purpose in one's education should be individual and general. It should include the thought of one's own good, and of the larger service an educated man can render to society. Education should include such knowledge of the literature and philosophy of the world as gives breadth of thought, and inspires with the purpose to do something to advance the general interests of men. It should be the healthful ambition of every young man, to acquire such an education as would prepare him to do something that would enlarge and enrich his life, and add to the comfort of others.

Young men sometimes think that education most desirable, which leads away from manual labor, and into the popular professions. They fancy that in the professions more happiness can be found, and that they can there fill out, more nearly, the possibilities of their mental faculties. But the professions are not for all young men; not every one has a natural bent in that direction. To educate one's self for a profession, when there is no natural inclination toward it, is to educate one's self for a probable failure. A young man who had just been graduated from the high school, told a friend that he wished to educate himself for a lawyer; not a common practitioner, but one who should stand at the head of the profession. Later on, this young man was found doing good work in a village grocery as a clerk. He was contented, and appeared to be developing strong traits of a manly character. Evidently he had found the place he was qualified to fill.

Not all young men would make successful lawyers, even though they should have much forensic knowledge. All young men could not become skillful physicians. Only a few would meet a high degree of success in the ministry. There has not been many born poets in the history of the world. There are many politicians but only a few statesmen.

It would be better for a young man to educate himself for a competent laborer in the shop, the mill, or on the farm, if he should there find the environments best suited to the development of his manhood, than to flounder in a profession without the natural or acquired ability needful to secure his success.

Young men should educate themselves for the positions in life that they can honor. He who honors his vocation will be honored in it. Every young man should prepare himself by careful training, to do in life something that the world needs to have done, and that he can do better than he can do anything else. If young men were willing to obtain such an education, and to engage in such work as it would naturally lead them to, they would find their proper places in the world. Doing well the things they can do best, they should be happy. In the right position and with a right purpose, every young man should round out his mental and spiritual powers, and make a generous contribution towards the further advancement of the race.

Franklinton Christian College stands for the moral, intellectual, and as far as its limited equipment will permit, the industrial education of the colored youth. Young men and women there receive instruction in the principles of good citizenship. Continual efforts are made to bring them into closer harmony with the conditions that have been divinely appointed for them, and to prepare them to work out their problems in life by the light of a Christian manhood.

DEFIANCE, OHIO.

Starkey Seminary.

This is one of the oldest schools of the Christians, having been established in 1839, and continuing ever since in active operation.

For all this period it has sustained a high standard of scholarship, under efficient and learned administrators. Recently by help of the generous spirit of the Hon. Francis A. Palmer, of New York, one of its trustees, it is in possession of a magnificent new building, which is furnished throughout with modern equipments in class rooms and dormitories. The new site is superb, and acknowledged by visitors to be one of the finest occupied by any educational institution.

Palmer Hall stands on the verge of the plateau overlooking Seneca Lake, and in full view of Watkins, the site of the Glen of that name, which is place of pilgrimage for tourists from all parts of the world.

The health record of the school is far above the average, and instances occur constantly of pupils who have broken down in other schools soon recovering their health and class standing in Starkey.

The school is open to both sexes, and the young people come in the last grammar grade and are carried through the full high school course and beyond it. At their choice they are fitted for any college, trained for business or take finishing courses in vocal or instrumental music, elocution or art. Ten teachers are employed, all specialists in their several departments. The standard of instruction is set by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, but the school intends to do far more than enable its pupils to pass the Regents' examinations and is not satisfied till it imparts a desired scholarship.

A very desirable feature of the school is the connection with the literary societies, with which all the students are affiliated and in which they carry on their own literary training under the eye and help of their teachers. In these societies the pupils practice parliamentary law, write essays, engage in debates and learn to think and speak extempore.

Starkey offers special musical advantages. It has its fixed practice hours for the piano student, who at home might be interrupted by distracting tasks or by visitors. Advancement here is rapid, as the student gives his steady attention to his theory and practice.

What Starkey has been in the way of improvement in the last few years is but prophecy of the years to come. Mr. Palmer last June started the endowment fund with the gift of a hundred thousand dollars, and others are giving generously to increase the amount till the school can be practically self-supporting. Its trustees are alert and they are noting what the school needs and are meeting the needs promptly. It may frankly be said that Starkey is a good place, a safe place, for the young people, and more, that it is a growing place, with all its prospects never brighter than now.

STARKEY SEMINARY,

LAKEMONT, NEW YORK.

IRST class boarding school for young people of both sexes, from thirteen years old and upward. The situation of the school is unrivaled, planted on the verge of the plateau overlooking Seneca Lake, and in full view of Watkins, the site of the famous Watkins Glen.

Owing to the generosity of the Hon. Francis A. Palmer of New York, a member of the trustees, the school has possession of a magnificent new building, equipped with modern appliances for convenience and comfort. Ten teachers, specialists in their several departments compose the Board of Instruction, and the students are prepared for any college, trained for business or take finishing courses in art, elocution and vocal and instrumental music. The health record of the school is above the average, and the distance from all demoralizing influence tends to promote moral and intellectual health. Special watchcare is taken of the girls, who are under the supervision of five lady teachers Terms are very moderate, while the table is kept up to the standard of schools that charge twice or thrice the Starkey rate.

FRANKLINTON COLLEGE, FRANKLINTON, N. C.

Franklinton College,

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

THE college is dependent on its friends for financial support. If it could be suitably equipped for its work, and placed on a firm financial basis, its usefulness would be increased many fold. A few friends to the institution have remembered it in their bequests, and it is hoped that many others will.

Those who have money to leave or, what would be better, to give now, would do a lasting and immeasurable good, by contributing generously to Franklinton Christian College.

REV. Z. A. POSTE, President.

Union Christian College.

Union Christian College was founded at Merom, Indiana in 1859 by the Christian Church. The College is governed by a Board of Trustees, divided into three classes, each serving for three years. The Trustees are elected by the stockholders from nominations made by conferences in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The Board controls the affairs of the College, administers its finances, confers, by the advice of the Faculty, its degrees, appoints its instructors, and determines its general policy. The annual meeting of the Board is held during commencement week.

The purpose of the College is to extend to young men and women, on equal terms, the benefits of a liberal education. Its curriculum are arranged so as to provide preparation for advanced professional training and service, and to furnish that broad culture which should be the possession of every intelligent man and woman. The methods are those which educational experience has approved.

The College opened September 9, 1860 with one college class and a large preparatory department. The first class was graduated in 1864. Since that time there have been one hundred and twenty graduates from the College departments and one hundred and twenty-two graduates from the shorter courses, making a total of two hundred and forty-two graduates.

The College is supported by the tuition, incidental fees, donations, and the interest from the endowment fund. The annual enrollment is somewhat more than two hundred students. The teachers, including those who are employed for the spring term, include twelve persons.

The moral tone of the institution is excellent. The student body is composed of earnest young men and women. The College is removed from the vices of city life and the environments are such that the Faculty can have a personal and controlling influence over the lives of the students. So wholesome is the Christian influence of the school that at times fully ninty-five per cent. of the students are Christians.

The institution aims to maintain a high standard of scholarship and make the classroom work thorough. It would be difficult to estimate the good the College has done. Its graduates are holding positions of prominence and responsibility in many professions. As the friends of the College come to its support with their means and influence, the institution will widen the sphere of its usefulness and increase the efficiency of its work.

The Christian life is neither a dogma nor an action, but a certain tone of thought and sentiment, a certain purity of desire and simplicity of aim, a certain holiness of affection, spirituality of devoutness, humility of self-dedication.—James Drummond.

ANTIOCH COLLEGE, YELLOW SPRINGS, OHIO

ANTIOCH COLLEGE.

Antioch College is situated at Yellow Springs, Greene county, Ohio. It is between the cities of Springfield and Xenia, about nine miles from each, seventy-five miles north-east of Cincinnati. Yellow Springs is widely known for the beauty of its scenery and healthfulness of its climate.

The college buildings are four in number; College Hall, two dormitories and the President's house. Over ten thousand dollars have been expended in improvements within the past few years.

AIMS AND METHODS.

The following aims have characterized the college through its history.

1. To offer equal opportunities to students of both sexes.
2. To maintain a non sectarian college of high rank. The ethics taught is Christian ethics; the daily religious service is Christian worship. The students are allowed absolute freedom of choice, subject only to the expressed wishes of parent or guardians, as to their place of worship. The officers and students of the institution are of various denominations, and maintain the church relations which their own consciences approve. The standard of scholarship is high. The lessons inculcated at Antioch include obedience to recognized authority, the punctual performance of appointed tasks, and attention to physical development.

The faculty and instructors at Antioch are well qualified for the positions they fill, and they are wholly devoted to the interests of the students. The classes being comparatively small, teachers can give each student personal attention and help that would not be possible in large institutions.

Special attention is called to the fact that both the Chemical and Physical, and Biological laboratories are well equipped for teaching the sciences according to the latest and most improved methods. Such equipments are absolutely essential to the best teaching of these subjects.

Joy Fund. The interest on this fund enables about thirty worthy students to attend college each year who would be unable to do so without some financial aid. The fund is loaned at a nominal rate. Those desiring the use of this fund should apply to the President.

Library. The College Library contains over seven thousand bound volumes, and the reading room is supplied with all the leading magazines of the country. Both library and reading room are free to students.

Literary Societies. The students sustain two excellent literary societies.

Music. The musical department of the college is most excellent. Students are trained in both instrumental and vocal music, by teachers of superior ability.

Conditions of Admission. Due credit is given for work done in other schools, and graduates from accredited high schools are admitted to the Freshman class on certificate.

Expenses. Tuition in all departments of the college is ten dollars a term; incidentals two and a half dollars a term. This does not include tuition in music or elocution. Rent for unfurnished rooms for each student, three to four dollars a term.

Boarding. Good table board can be had for, not to exceed $2 per week.

PALMER COLLEGE, LE GRAND, IOWA.

PALMER COLLEGE.

The College embraces the regular college courses, besides theological, normal, music, academical, and commercial.

A fine class of students are regular attendants. The scholarship is high. The religious atmosphere permeates the spirit of the school.

Expenses are probably lower than most schools of as high a grade. Board (club) about $1.50 per week. Tuition and incidentals, $9 for academy; $10 for college, per term. Room, for one or two, partly furnished and supplied with fuel, $7 per term.

Students coming from a distance of one hundred miles have half their railroad fare paid, when staying the whole school year. Special terms to theological students.

Kansas Christian College, LINCOLN, KANSAS.

The mind of man is said to be the noblest work of God. It is the business chamber in which progress has its origin. Here are laws of development which must have attention, otherwise the individual will be dwarfed intellectually, and advancement in thought retarded

The curriculum in this institution is so arranged that the natural development of the mind is certain. The gradual unfolding of truth subjects the mind to an easy and natural reception of light. Seven good things may be said about

KANSAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

1. It is a Christian College.
2. It is young, vigorous and practical in its aims.
3. It is favorably located in the West.
4. It has been brought into existence by consecrated hearts.
5. Expenses are very reasonable.
6. It is loyal to truth.
7. It seeks the best interests of the student, physically intellectually and spiritually.

CHRISTIAN BIBLICAL INSTITUTE,

STANFORDVILLE, NEW YORK.

This is the theological school, and ministerial training-school of the denomination known as "Christians." It was founded by the American Christian Convention under its action in 1868. Was opened in Eddytown, the seat of Starkey Seminary, under the presidency of Rev. Austin Craig, D.D., in the fall of 1868, and removed to Stanfordville, Dutchess Co., New York, its present location, in 1872. Stanfordville is about eighteen miles northeast of Poughkeepsie on the Hudson. Three railroads pass through the town, leading from the Hudson to Hartford and Boston. It is in a charming and healthful locality, a favorite resort in summer for refugees from the heat of cities. It has buildings adequate to its present needs, in good condition, and unencumbered of the denomination in establishing the Institute was to aid in preparation for its own ministry; but it is open to well-accredited Christians who desire to prepare for the ministry or other gospel work, without regard to sex, age, or denominational preferences. Its desire is to help build up the kingdom of Christ in any way it can best be done. There are almost constantly among its students those who are members of other denominations, and they are welcomed without discrimination. Without any attempts to influence them, several of these have been attracted to our denomination and are doing good work in our churches. Others attend the Institute who are not intending to enter the ministry, but are preparing themselves for Christian work on other lines.

THE PRIMARY DESIGN

"BIBLICAL INSTITUTE."

The institution is called a Biblical Institute, not a Theological School. This was not accidental. The founders of the Institute did not wish for a school to teach their young men a fixed system of theology, but to aid them in the study of the Bible. The theological "standard" of the Christians is the Bible. The denomination arose and exists as a protest against the division of the church of Christ on lines of non-essential dogmas embodied in creeds. It accepts the Bible as revealing to the common sense of men the essential principles which lie at the basis of true faith and life. Hence the object of the school is primarily and chiefly the study of the Bible, especially the New Testament, believing that from this source the preacher draws his best preparations for his work.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

are arranged with reference to this. The lectures of the president, in two courses, are both in the line of Biblical study. The English Bible of both Testaments is a regular daily study in connection with Biblical history, besides weekly lessons of the whole school on special selections. There is also a daily study of the New Testament in the original Greek till the entire New Testament is covered, and the study of old Testament Hebrew is pursued in the senior year. The philosophical and ethical studies are made practical in their bearing on the work of the ministry and of life We seek a theology that is practical and spiritual, as well as intelligent, rather than dogmatic and fixed. We believe that true theology is broad, reverent, and sympathetic, bea ing the spirit, as well as declaring the doctrine, of the New Testament; that it touches the wide interests of man, as well as theories pertaining to the character of God and his government. The friends of the Institute are gratified at seeing so large numbers of its ex-students engaged in earnest and successful work among the churches, and holding a strong influence in denominational and Christian enterprises. We aim at thoroughness in intellectual attainment; but we prize more a spirit of devout consecration as a more essential factor in successful gospel work.

THE EXPENSES

of the school are light. We have but a small beneficiary fund, and that is mostly in the hands of ex-students. The Institute can offer little encouragement in this direction. But it aims to bring its privileges within the reach of all by offering its tuition and the use of its very pleasant, furnished rooms free of charge, and by bringing board and other expenses to the lowest figure consistent with wise economy. The entire expenses of a school year, including heat and books, need not be above $85 or $100.

For further information address the president, REV. J. B. WESTON, D.D., Stanfordville, N. Y.

Weaubleau Christian College.

THIS school was established and is controlled by the Christians. It is now in its thirtieth year. For twenty-five years it has been presided over by its founder and incumbent President, J. Whitaker, A.M., D.D.

More than 1,900 students have been enrolled, about half of whom have been teachers in public and private schools; several ministers of the Christian Church have been educated here.

The managers of the school have kept the Institution free from debt. A small endowment has been secured, but a larger one is now needed.

The location of the school is a very suitable one. Weaubleau is a quiet town, in Hickory Co., Mo., on the "'Frisco" R. R., on a healthy prairie.

New York State Christian Association.

(Reported by Secretary Helfenstein.)

New York State Christian Association is a mission or benevolent institution. Its territory comprises New York State and parts of Pennsylvania. The objects are to promote the union and advancement of all our denominational interests within its bounds, and, by co operating with other similar associations, the union and advancement of the interests of the entire denomination. Through its five departments —mission, relief, educational, publishing, and Sunday-school—very much permanent good has been accomplished. The Association meets biennially. The home office is Eddytown, N. Y.

The next regular biennial session, third Monday in June, 10 a m, at Starkey Seminary 1902.

President, Rev John MacCalman, Eddytown, N Y; First Vice-President, Rev John B Weston, Stanfordville, N Y; Second Vice-President, Rev Martyn Summerbell, D D, Eddytown, N Y; Secretary, Rev S Q Helfenstein, Orangeport, N Y; Treasurer, James S Frost, Eddytown, N Y; Department Secretaries—Mission, H Brown, Eddytown, N Y; Relief, Rev J W Wilson, East Springfield, Pa; Educational, J B Pease, Gasport, N Y; Publishing, Rev M D Lyke, Lakeville, N Y; Sunday-school, Dr J B Weston, Stanfordville, N Y; C E Secretary, A C Yowmans.

In connection with the New York State Christian Association, a new incorporation has been effected, known as the New York State Christian Convention, embracing the same territory. Its officers are the same as the Association's officers.

Ohio State Christian Association.

(Reported by Secretary McReynolds.)

TERRITORY—Embraces the State of Ohio. Conferences in Pennsylvania and Kentucky have been invited to join the Association.

In the past the Association has aimed chiefly to raise money and then each year meet in a kind of a business session and appropriate whatever of funds it may have had on hands. It will now become not a place for the transaction of financial matters only but a place where methods and plans will be discussed, the center for the most advanced thought in regard to the best way to do church work in all its departments. Each year much of the business is done by the Executive Board and the time of the general sessions will be given to discussions on all phases of our work, and to addresses of an inspirational character. The Departments are organized as never before, The coming year will witness advance along many lines.

Better methods, better organization and more cooperation are issues to be met the coming year. The paramount issue however will be the erection of a church in the city of Columbus. The Field Secretary will devote his energies largely to this work.

Officers—President, Rev Horace Mann, A M, Piqua, O, Recording Secretary, Rev N Del McReynolds, Urbana, O.

Department Secretaries—Relief, Rev G B Garner, Herring; Christian Endeavor, Rev M W Baker, Ph D, Springfield; Finance, Rev Albert Dunlap, Columbus; Missions, Rev H Crampton, Eaton; Education, Rev J F Burnett, Muncie, Ind; Publications, Rev H Y Rush, West Milton; Sunday-schools, Mr Geo Worley, Covington.

Conference Vice-Presidents—Northwestern Conference, John Akerman, Herring; Mt Vernon Conference; Rev F H Peters, Yellow Springs; Miami Conference, Rev W H Denison, A M, Troy: Southern Conference, Rev S L Swope; Ohio Conference, Rev Henry Canter, Five Points; Eastern Ohio Conference, Rev W J Warrener, Federal; Northeastern Conference, Rev H H Holverstott, Marion.

Trustees—Geo Worley, Covington; W A Bell, LL D, Yellow Springs; Rev O W Powers, D D, Conneaut; Rev G R Mell, Delphos. The president, recording secretary and the department secretaries compose the Executive Board.

Southern Christian Convention.

(Reported by Secretary Kernodle.)

Territory—The Southern Christian Convention is composed of the following conferences: Virginia Valley Conference, J S Kagey, Secretary, Harrisonburg, Va; Georgia and Alabama Conference, J W Payne, Secretary, Truett, Ala; Eastern Virginia Conference, T J Lawrence, Secretary, South Quay, Va; Western N C Conference, Rev H A Albright, Secretary, Moffit, N C; N C and Va Conference, Rev J W Holt, Secretary, Burlington, N C; Eastern N C Conference, Rev Herbert Seholz, Lindsey, N C

Next session at Ashboro, N C, May-2, 1902.

President, Rev P H Fleming, Burlington, N C; Vice-President, Dr J W Manning, Milledgville, Ga; Secretary, P J Kernodle, Elon College, N C; Assistant Secretary, Rev J L Foster, Raleigh, N C; Treasurer, J A Mills, Raleigh, N C.

The Home Mission work of the convention, as shown by the report of the Christian Missionary Association at the meeting of the convention, at Franklin, Va, is in successful operation. The Association maintains a General Missionary in its bounds. As regards Foreign Missions, it is believed there is a steady growth of interest.

The convention has submitted to the various conferences composing it, plans for the complete liquidation of the indebtedness of Elon College, which they have accepted. Thus, practically the college is freed from any embarrassment as to its future progress. Rev W W Staley, D D, is president of the College and its financial affairs are intrusted to him. Last year was the best in the history of the college. There is manifestly an increased interest in education.

The convention has also inaugurated plans for an orphanage, for which considerable funds have already been contributed. Rev J L Foster, Raleigh, N C, is the authorized agent of this fund.

The convention at its last session set on foot plans for the raising of a Twentieth Century Free Will offering of $20,000.00 for educational purposes. A secretary was appointed, and up to this time quite a number of the churches in the bounds of Conferences have subscribed and paid the amounts apportioned—some churches pledging and paying double their amounts. Rev W C Wicker, Newport News, Va, is the chairman of the Twentieth Century Fund Committee, and Bro J E West, of Soffolk, Va, is acting secretary.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY—1902.

NOTE.—The following is a list of the names and post-office addresses of the ministers of the Christian Church as far as they could be obtained. As changes are constantly occuring, we can aim only to give the roll as it stands at the date of publication. It is almost complete, and is as accurate as our seventy-two Conference Secretaries could make it. The reports of the Secretaries are relied upon as official. Every Conference Secretary should send us a complete and accurate directory of his Conference not later than November 1 of each year. Ministers receiving transfers are considered members of the conferences granting the transfers until reported as having been received into other conferences. Conference membership appears in parenthesis after each name. The abbreviations made necessary for each will be readily understood. If any minister's name is omitted, he should notify the Secretary of his Conference, thereby avoiding its omission in next year's directory.

HOLMAN SELF-PRONOUNCING S. S. TEACHERS' BIBLES

With the latest and best Helps as follows:

A New Practical, Comparative Concordance;

A New Pronouncing Bible Dictionary Illustrated;

A New Ready Reference Hand Book;

Magnificent New Maps in Colors, Etc.

THE HOLMAN LINEAR PARALLEL BIBLE.

An arrangement by which not only the Readings but the Comparisons of the two Versions become easy, satisfactory and perfect. No embarrassing foot or side notes. Strongly commended by Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, Rev. Dr. Day, Secretary American Revision Committee, the late Dr. Wm. Henry Green, Chairman American Revision Committee, and the Press and Pulpit generally.

New India Paper Edition Now Ready.

The Vest Pocket New Testament and Psalms.

Printed from the largest type used in any small edition of the New Testament. Pronouncing. Extremely popular.

The Vest Pocket Self-Pronouncing Bible Dictionary.

Uniform in style with Testaments. Just the thing for Bible students by reason of the size and many references.

DR. F. N. PELOUBET'S SUGGESTIVE ILLUSTRATIONS.

1 Volume on the Gospel According to St. John. Cloth, 12 mo., 543 pages.
1 Volume on the Acts of the Apostles. Cloth, 12 mo., 483 pages.

The Christian Endeavor World, of Boston, says of these books: "Every page is crowded with bright anecdotes, gems of poetry, wise epigrams and shrewd comments."
